

Name : Asim Kumar Sarker
Designation : Deputy Director
Specialization: MIS Planning, Data Management,
Data Analysis
Education : M.Sc. in ICT Convergence,
Handong Global University, South Korea
MBA (MIS), University of Dhaka
BBA (MIS), University of Dhaka
Cell : +8801911405741
Email : asim@rda.gov.bd, sarker.asim@gmail.com

ASIM KUMAR SARKER has been serving as a Deputy Director at Rural Development Academy (RDA), Bogura since July 2013. Prior to joining RDA, he worked with Airtel Bangladesh Limited as Territory Manager. Before that, he also served Dun & Bradstreet Rating Agency Bangladesh Limited as Research Associate of SME Rating Unit. Mr. Sarker completed his Master of Science in ICT Convergence from Handong Global University, Pohang, South Korea under KOICA Scholarship Programme during 2016-17. He also obtained his MBA and BBA from University of Dhaka with a concentration in Management Information Systems (MIS). In addition, he had completed some certificate courses on Database Design, Data Management and MIS Planning & Designing. Mr. Sarker had already published several research papers, journal articles in different national and international platforms. He had also accomplished several commissioned researches as “Data Analyst” funded by different government agencies in Bangladesh. As a part of his academic engagement, he attained a number of training programmes in different countries like South Korea, India and Bangladesh concerning entrepreneurship development, ICT applications in rural development, international cooperation and so on. He has some professional experiences in MIS Planning and Designing, Data Analysis, Database Management, professional training on MS Excel. His research interest is mainly focused on ICT4D, Access to Finance, Rural Development, Entrepreneurship Development etc.